he causes of he ham e in Maine are local chiefly. They are cause; which do not affect any other state. Elections of last year, and elections so (ar this year, prove that decisively. In Version, where the local claively. In Version, where the lovel causes which have produced the sexult repurted in Maine are not in operation, the remembered that though the election in Manne last September went against the republican "startiff for revagos only". But at the demperature of the party, every other northern state followed orratic state convention of New Jersey, held republican authorities did not enforce the tidnists are to be betrayed, laws with sufficient vigor. Some two or three weeks since their candidate for governor withdrew, either upon his own motion or through inducement, in favor of the republicans. This enraged, the prohibition councilets, and they sight over in a time-to-solid body to the semblated opposition, work, Again, no small number of republicans who portunity—acting on well known principles of human nature—to "get even." These local causes account for the result in Maine will have a good effect on the republicans, forthwith they are credited with the formal show them the necessity of renewed motives. This is extremely constructed in all parts of the country. It is as-generous. But it well illustrates the erted that this result in Maine does not mean the loss of the electoral vote of the state to the republicans, as "fusion" on local issues canno: so essily be carried into national outstions. In this there is probable troth.

But it is not likely that the election will be product of it will be a senator who will decided by the vote of the state of Maine, go. thou it will. The fight is in New York and like David flavin of Illinois. It the republicans carry either of always in confusion like this. those states their victory is gained, and if they lose but of them they are defeated be-yond hope; so that the electoral vote of Maine can cut no figure sither way.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE This unusually long doctment we present in full to-day. It is not necessary to recapitulate its statements. The document furnishes a very full review of the affairs of the whole judicious. What the governor says in regard to the results of inconsiderate legislature, as verified by experience in this mare, should command the attention both of egisinture and people. Proper exercise of executive authority heretofore would have prevented many of these evil consequences.
"An attempt," he says, "to appropriate rums of money, when the state has not the money nor any immediate prospect of obtaining it in which the debt of the state has been tested. The subject of taration is reviewed in a brief though effective manner. Beyon!

The truth is, no co-ductions of indebtedness ought to be allowed; or if such are allowed, if should be only noder very close and precise limitations. The supshall at a future time publish the report of he apperintendent, only remarking now that the exhibit for the last two years is blighly flattering to the management and favorable to the state. Certain refuncks in relation to the a-ylum for the insane seem to us worthy udation. This journal has often insisted that some check upon the power to send persons to the asylum ought to be pro-vided, and it is gratified to observe that the governor takes this view of the subject, Again, the governor justly remarks that he can are no regson for supporting the full stic or imbecile in the anylum at the expense of the state, and sound reasons are given for the poon. A recommendation is also presented for erection of a state asylum. The subject of state lands is corefully reviewed, and many other topics are judiciously discussed. The message on the whole is highly creditable to the governor, and is in contrast with the weesages of some of his predecessors, in that it is

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE Secretary Earhart's report is presented to ke and intelligible shapa. It shows that appropriations for the biennial term ended September 12, 1880, amounted to $429 352 29, of which there was expended the strat of $392 236 51, leaving on hand $37,115 78. Of this unexpended balance nearly one half in credited to the penitentiary lund. The $29,000 appropriated for the capital building was all expended; also the $116,000 appropriated for the capital building was all expended; also the $116,000 appropriated for keeping the insune. Of the gross amount expended during the two years, $23,858 was used onthing the two years, $23,858 was used onthing the two years. Amount expenses during the two years, $33,868 was paid out to meet deficiencies. Expenses for all purposes during the last two years have been considerably lower than the average for blennial term during years priceding. This is due chiefly to the superior vigilance and better business capacity of the different branches of the present administration. During the last two years the cost of conveying insens to the saylum has been $56.51 each against $86.48 for the preceding term. A still greater reduction has bee made in the cost to the state of conveying convicts to the Penitentiary. For two years past this expense has averaged $50 to for each convict. For the two years next preceding it was $92 71. The total indebtedness of the state on the first day of the present month was $511,376.15. Of this amount $356 508 39 is in bonds of the state bearing seven per cent. interest; and there are outstanding warrants amounting to $154 867 76, chirfly payable out of specific incide, as the various land funds supposed to belong to the state. The Modoc war bonds amount to $132.921 38. The Wiliamette falls canal and look bonds, amount ing to $151,500, will be payable on the lat of January next. The secretary recommends that these debts be refunded at seven per cent. interest, and that investment of consmoschool funds in the bonds be authorized by law. The suggestion scenes was since thereby further loss of these funds through depre-ciation of security would be svoided. The lesson of the Maine election is a warning against "personal politics." It is a lesson good for more states than Maine, What has produced this change to a state once good for 20,000 republican majority? The "ouss" business in politics. The dynasty controlling the party in that state has been son absolute and autocratic. It has monopolized an the avenues to a political career; it has kept s few men of whom Senator Hamlin is a type, in political positions for an entire cene on, and has asserted a dictatorship over the party till many have grown tired of it-Hence there ha been a revolt.
